Proudly Supporting The Cancer Council of Victoria

Preparations are under way for the second fundraising concert for 2008. After the success of the Good Friday Appeal concert in March, Australian Keyboard Academy (AKA) students are ready to go at it again!

The concert will raise money for the Cancer Council of Victoria a charity organisation that support people through their cancer experience.

All AKA students are encouraged to perform and the AKA welcome other music students living in Brimbank to perform. The concert is an excellent vehicle to showcase the local talent and hard work students put into the music.

For further information regarding performing at the fundraising concerts, supporting the fundraising concerts and ticket sales contact AKA on 9310 9532.
